TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This letter serves as a personal and professional reference for Mr Bryan Thomas Langler.

I have known Bryan both professionally and personally since September 2001 and have always found Bryan to be most helpful and very professional in all of our business dealings.

Bryan as a qualified and licensed security consultant was appointed by Wesfarmers Industrial & Safety to review, recommend and then oversee the implementation on Security Risk Minimisation and integrated management program for our network of over 200 locations Australia wide.

This included outsourcing nationally a Back-to Base Alarm monitoring Services and establishing procedures to suit our business and that of the A – Grade monitoring centre. Bryan also established a National provision of alarm response services all with a central billing process.

He visited 75% of our locations throughout Australia reviewing and reporting on each locations Security and then with consultation supervised the implementation of site security upgrades.

Bryan has been an integral part of the process in assisting Wesfarmers Industrial & Safety to establish procedures and standards to reduce the risk of loss from adversaries.

Bryan's strengths are many, but limited to:

- ◆ Attention to Minor Detail – this is one of Bryan's "trade mark" standards
- ◆ Due Diligence – Bryan always shows due diligence in any work preparation
- ◆ Strong Organisational Skills – He can organise and run large or small projects with a guaranteed smooth outcome every time.
- ◆ Excellent Communication Skills – both written and verbal – Bryan has the ability to access a person's technical knowledge, and then communicate clearly the task at hand, making a complicated matter seem easy to understand.

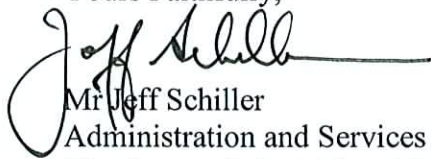

- ◆ Exceptional Customer Service Skills – His dedication to ensure a high delivery of excellent customer service is rare and this is always appreciated by all that have dealings with him.
- ◆ Bryan makes himself available 24/7 to his clients, whether it is during business hours or 2:00am. He is proactive and delivers a workable solution to resolve immediate issues.
- ◆ Honesty – Bryan has impeccable integrity and can be trusted in all areas of life without question.

It is a pleasure dealing with such a professional and capable business executive especially in such a sensitive area as National Corporate Security Risk Management.

I have no hesitation in offering my highest recommendation to anyone regarding Bryan's both personal and professional character and abilities.
